RULES FOR REGISTRATION:

All Quarter Horses bred in California must be registered with Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Racing Association before they will be allowed to be entered in any California-Bred race, or collect awards through the Cal-Bred Awards Program. In order to legally claim the Cal-Bred bonus payment for a California-Bred race within this state, such horse shall, previous to being entered in such race, have been registered and certified as a California-Bred Quarter Horse with the PCQHRA. The breeder, owner or his agent is eligible to file this application.

CALIFORNIA-BRED DEFINED:

A Cal-Bred prior to Jan. 1, 1997 is defined as an AQHA registered Quarter Horse foal conceived in California. ## CALIFORNIA-BRED BREEDER DEFINED:

The Cal-Bred breeder of a foal conceived prior to Jan. 1, 1996 is defined as the owner of the mare at the time of foaling. For a foal conceived after Jan. 1, 1996 the Cal-Bred Breeder is defined as the owner of the mare at the time of conception.

Application may be filled out by mail or in person at the office of the Pacific Quarter Horse Association (4961 Katella Ave. Los Alamitos, CA). Application blanks must be completed legibly in ink and must be accompanied by fee and AQHA registration certificates. Any fees tendered by check are accepted by PCQHRA as conditional payment and are subject to final payment in cash. No horse shall be certified by PCQHRA as a registered California-bred until good funds are received by PCQHRA and all other requirement for eligibility have been satisfied.
